A wonn to wise Democrats:—If the Horney Peak Tin Mining Company of after the beautiful South Dakota, writing from London, house me the Republican party, why in the name England, gives the following startling of common sense don't you let it pass information: without so much opposition? You fight it as though you expected it to strengthen the Republican party.

THE Pittsburgh Times suggests that it is plainly to be seen that the Baltimore and Ohio road is climbing surely, and yet not slowly into the front ranks of the great roads of the country. This is true, as every day demonstrates. The road is becoming more identified with Wheeling's interests as it is also with those of Pittsburgh.

Tue result of the conference between the Senate and House committees regarding the disagreements as to certain features of the Morrill pension bill, is that a disability measure will be passed. While this is not all that was desired, it is better than nothing. The features that were stricken out of the bill will, however, not be abandoned.

In our news columns this morning Mr. Ilu. Maxwell cives an interesting description of Blowing Cave, on the line of the West Virginia Central railroad, and tells of a plan to establish in its vicinity what will doubtless be one of the most popular summer resorts in the ginia are becoming famous for the attractions they present to summer visitors.

THE experiment of introducing into the La Salle Female Seminary a system known as "the art of mind concentration," which is said to closely resemble hypnotism, has been followed by disastrous results. Two young ladies have had their nerve systems shattered and may never recover. When a college beis time for humane people to interfere.
